Direction (for Q.No.31-40): Read the following passages and answer the questions that follow:

Passage I

Organizations are institutions in which members compete for status and power. They compete for resources of the organization, for example, finance to expand their own departments, for career advancement and for power to control the activities of others. In pursuit of these aims, groups are formed and sectional interests emerge. As a result, policy decisions may serve the ends of political and career systems rather than those of the concern. In this way, the goals of the organization may be displaced in favour of sectional interests and individual ambition. These preoccupations sometimes prevent the emergence of organic systems. Many of the electronic firms in the study had recently created research and development departments employing highly qualified and well-paid scientists and technicians. Their high pay and expert knowledge were sometimes seen as a threat to the established order of rank, power and privilege. Many senior managers had little knowledge of technicality and possibilities of new developments in electronics. Some felt that close cooperation with the experts in an organic system would reveal their ignorance and show their experience was now redundant.

31. The theme of the passage is:

- a) Groupism in organizations
- b) Individual ambitions in organizations
- c) Frustration of senior managers
- d) Emergence of sectional interests in organizations

32. "Organic system" as related to the organization implies its:

- a) Growth with the help of expert knowledge
- b) Growth with input from science and technology

- a) Cooperation at all levels in the organization
- b) Modernization of the organization
- c) Attracting highly qualified personnel
- d) Keeping in view the larger objectives of the organization

34. The author makes out a case for:

- a) Organic system
- b) Research and Development in organizations
- c) An understanding between senior and middle level executives
- d) A refresher course for senior managers

35. The author views the senior managers as:

- a) Ignorant and incompetent
- b) A little out of step with their work environment
- c) Jealous of their younger colleagues
- d) Robbed of their rank, power and privilege

Passage II

What needs to be set right is our approach to work. It is a common sight in our country of employees reporting for duty on time and at the same time doing little work. If an assessment is made of time they spent in gossiping, drinking tea, eating "pan" and smoking cigarettes, it will be shocking to know that the time devoted to actual work is negligible. The problem is the standard, which the leadership in administration sets for the staff. Forget the ministers because they mix politics and administration. What do top bureaucrats do? What do the officials down the line do? The administration set up remains weak mainly because the employees do not have the right example to follow and they are more concerned about being in the good books of the bosses than doing work.

36. The employees in our country are:

- a) quite punctual but not duty conscious
- b) not punctual, but somehow manage to complete their work
- c) somewhat lazy but good natured
- d) not very highly qualified.

- a) by and large effective
- b) very strict and firm
- c) affected by red tape
- d) more or less ineffective

38. The word 'assessment' means:

- a) Enquiry
- b) Report
- c) Evaluation
- d) Summary

39. The leadership in administration:

- a) sets a fine example to the employees
- b) is of a reasonably high standard
- c) is composed of idealists
- d) is of a very poor standard

40. The central idea of the passage could be best expressed by the following:

- a) The employee outlook towards work is justified
- b) The employees must change their outlook towards work
- c) The employees would never change their work culture
- d) The employer-employee relationship is far from healthy
