

UGC-NET EXAM

University Grants Commission National Eligibility Test (UGC NET) or NTA UGC NET is a national-level exam conducted in order to determine the eligibility of candidates for Assistant Professor or Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) and Assistant Professor posts in Indian universities and colleges.

UGC NET Eligibility 2024 - Educational Qualification

Candidates need to have the following educational qualification in order to be eligible to apply for the UGC NET exam:

Candidates should have secured at least 55 per cent marks in master's degree exams. A relaxation of five per cent is given to candidates belonging to Scheduled Caste (SC)/Scheduled Tribe (ST)/Other Backward Class (OBC)/Persons with Disability (PwD)/Transgender category. Therefore, candidates from reserved categories require only 50 per cent aggregate marks in their master's degree exams.

Candidates should have completed their post-graduation from a UGC recognized college/university in relevant streams such as Humanities, Social Science, Electronic Science, Computer Science & Applications, etc.

Candidates appearing in or awaiting results for their final year examination of master's degree are also eligible to apply online for the UGC NET exam. However, such candidates are admitted provisionally and are considered eligible only when they pass their master's exam with the required percentage. "Such candidates must complete their PG degree examination within two years from the date of NET result with required percentage of marks, failing which they shall be treated as disqualified", informs the official website.

PhD degree holders whose master's exams were completed on September 19, 1991 (regardless of the result declaration date) are eligible for a relaxation of five per cent marks in the aggregate i.e., only 50 per cent marks are required for such candidates.
